CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

MARK ATTANASIO

The 2007 season is Mark Attanasio's third as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. Attanasio, 49, has made four cornerstone pledges to the fans and community:

1. A perennially competitive team
2. The best fan experience possible-at Miller Park, through broadcasts and on the internet
3. Redoubled efforts to make the Club a leader in the community
4. An organization in which people want to work, whether on the field or behind the scenes

In order to field a consistently competitive team, Attanasio, along with Executive Vice President & General Manager Doug Melvin and Assistant General Manager Gord Ash, has signed Major League free agents; made significant trades to upgrade the Major League club; added instructors and coaches to develop minor-league players; and expanded front office and scouting staff to secure better talent.

Improving the fan experience at Miller Park has been a priority of ownership. Its efforts have been recognized by fans and media, who have ranked Miller Park among the best fan values in the game. Attanasio has worked closely with Executive Vice President-Business Operations Rick Schlesinger and Senior Vice President and CFO Bob Quinn in partnering with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District to install LED ribbon boards; to build the Mercedes Benz Field Haus, the 1957 Braves and 1982 Brewers party suites; and to inaugurate the new-for-2007 Club on the Club entertainment area. In addition, the Club has increased the number of televised games on FSN North; added television cameras and enhanced their positioning; and responded to fans' requests by bringing back Retro uniforms each week at home games. The Brewers also have significantly increased the number of activations and tailor-made opportunities for sponsors and partners to ensure that they can meet their business objectives.

Personally involved in the planning and implementation of the team's outreach, Attanasio views the Club as a resource to enhance civic pride, positively impact area youth, and provide role models for people of all ages. This community effort involves people at all levels and in all departments of the organization. In conjunction with the Milwaukee public schools and the Brewers, Attanasio worked to implement a program named SCORE (School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models, and Excellence). Players, coaches, front office personnel, and the Principal Owner visited middle school students throughout the city to describe how they had reached their potential both on and off the field. Other significant civic achieve-and deficiencies. In October 2006, Commissioner Allan "Bud" Selig presented Mark and Debbie with the Childrens Hospital Los Angeles Humanitarian Courage to Care Award for their dedication to youth-based charities in Los Angeles and Milwaukee.

Mark Attanasio is a principal of The TCW Group, Inc., a Los Angeles-based investment management firm with over $150 billion under management, overseeing its Leveraged Finance Group and serving on its Board of Directors. In addition to these roles, Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards including Heal the Bay (an environmental group aimed at preserving the Pacific coastline), the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Sports Spectacular (providing funding and leadership in the study of juvenile diseases), The United Way of Milwaukee, The Greater Milwaukee Committee, ments of the Club in 2006 included the Annual Negro Leagues Tribute and the Annual Cerveteros Day, as well as the Club's and the Attanasios' involvement in bringing an exhibit of 20th Century American comic books to the Milwaukee Museum of Art from Los Angeles. Because of Mark and his wife Debbie's sponsorship, area children were given the opportunity to meet Brewers players and experience this distinctive American art form.

The Attanasios have worked to improve the quality of life for school-aged children by donating their time and resources to many causes. In Los Angeles, they have provided numerous private scholarships and personal mentoring to children with educational needs

Harvard-Westlake School, and the President's Leadership Council of Brown University.

Attanasio also is an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Born on September 29, 1957 in Bronx, New York, Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University in 1979 and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law in 1982.

Mark, Debbie, and their two teenaged sons live in Los Angeles, California and are awaiting the completion of a new residence in Milwaukee.

As Scouting Director in New York, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing Bernie Williams.

He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out in 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by then Scouting Director Pat Gillick and played four more years.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is Milwaukee's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

The past two seasons, Miller Park has been rated by fans and media as one of the top facilities in Major League Baseball. In 2005, the Brewers were recognized by SI.com as the best fan value in all of Major League Baseball in their "Fan Value Index" poll. This past season, ratings were turned over to the fans, and Miller Park again achieved high marks by placing in the top four ballparks in all of Major League Baseball.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in its six seasons. This year, the new all inclusive, upscale "Club-on-the-Club" entertaining area highlights the new amenities available to fans. In addition, the Field Level concourse will feature a redesigned FanZone store as well as new displays recognizing the history of the Negro Leagues and Hispanics in Major League baseball. Other recent enhancements include new LED boards that circle the seating bowl, the new "Mercedes-Benz Field Haus" seating area behind the right field wall and themed party suites that honor the 1982 American League Champion Milwaukee Brewers and 1957 World Series Champion Milwaukee Braves.

With these enhancements, it's hard to believe that Miller Park is only six years old. April 6, 2001 is a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

On the day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that have already taken place in the Brewers new home.

Miller Park has drawn more than 13,000,000 visitors in its first six seasons, including 2,811,041 for Brewers baseball in 2001, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. Last season the ballpark hosted 2,335,643 fans, the third-best mark in club history. The Brewers announced 14 sellouts during the 2006 season, including a crowd of 45,150 on May 13 versus the Mets that marked the second-largest crowd in Miller Park history.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts including the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers themselves.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park accommodated a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark has also hosted the filming of the motion picture "Mr. 3000" starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, The Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the Midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August of 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd.

With an economic impact (according to the Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau) of $416 million in its first year alone, Miller Park is a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley Davidson Museum (opening 2008), Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of the year.

Here's just a sampling of what others are saying about one of baseball's newest jewels:

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." Brewers legend Jim Gantner.

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." Hall of Famer Robin Yount, on his first impressions of Miller Park.

MILLER PARK TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions.

Daily tours run from April through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes – so bring your walking shoes. All tours are wheelchair accessible.

Groups of 20-or-more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park tour is $6 for adults and $3 for children (14-and-under) and senior citizens (60 and older). Special rates are also available for youth groups.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park.

For more information on tours, including times, fans should call the Miller Park tour hotline at (414) 902-4005.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee Brewers baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside of Miller Park near the statues of Robin Yount and Henry Aaron. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 12 inductees going into the 2007 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2002, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper joined the prestigious ranks. In 2003, legendary Brewers radio voice Bob Uecker and former General

HELFAER FIELD WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Epstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field where the wall is nine feet.

The four poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August, 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers game dates, there will be five time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers night game home dates, there will be two time slots at two hours each available at 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Helfaer Field will not be available on Brewers day game home dates.

Reservation forms are available at the Brewers offices as well as on the club's website at www.brewers.com. Forms may be returned in person, by fax to 414-902-4058, by e-mail to amy.barnes@brewers.com or by mail to Amy Barnes, Milwaukee Brewers, Miller Park, One Brewers Way, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

HELFAER FIELD SUNDAYS

Beginning in May, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field on Sundays when the club is at home Helfaer Field Sundays gives fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark opens at 10:30 a.m. and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2007 season.

NASHVILLE SOUNDS

Pacific Coast League (AAA) • American North Division • 2006 Final Record: 76-68 (.528)

FRANK KREMBLAS MANAGER

Frank Kremblas returns for his third season as manager at Nashville and his eighth season in the Brewers minor-league system. His first season as the Sounds skipper, 2005, proved to be historic as he guided Nashville to the Pacific Coast League Championship, an accomplishment that no other Nashville manager has achieved. Under his guidance, the Sounds finished the regular season atop the American Conference Northern Division with a 75-69 record. Overall, Kremblas holds a 151-137 (.524) record as manager of the Sounds.

Kremblas managed Double-A Huntsville for three seasons (2002-04), where he was recognized by his peers as the "Best Managerial Prospect" in the Southern League in a 2004 Baseball America poll. In 2003, Kremblas led Huntsville to the Southern League Championship Series and was named as the Southern League Manager-of-the-Year. With Huntsville, Kremblas led the Stars to three consecutive winning seasons with a 216-201 record.

While managing Huntsville, Kremblas served as the West Division manager for the 2004 Southern League All-Star Game and as a coach for the U.S. team in the 2003 All-Star Futures Game in Chicago.

In 2001, Kremblas managed Single A High Desert to a 71-69 record and led the Mavericks to the second round of the California League playoffs. The previous season he led Single A Mudville to a 35-35 record after he assumed the managerial role after the All-Star break.

For two seasons (1998-99), Kremblas managed in the Montreal Expos farm system, making his start in Montreal's Gulf Coast League affiliate in his first year as manager. The next season, Kremblas led Single-A Cape Fear to the South Atlantic Championship Series following a 75-65 record. In eight seasons as a manager, Kremblas owns an overall record of 423-409.

Drafted by the Cincinnati Reds out of Eastern Kentucky in the 1989 draft, Kremblas played eight seasons in the minor leagues. His playing career ended with Triple A Louisville in 1996. Frank resides in Seymour, Tennessee.

STAN KYLES PITCHING COACH

Stan Kyles begins his third season as pitching coach at Nashville as he enters his sixth season in the Milwaukee Brewers organization. This season marks Kyles' fourth consecutive year as pitching coach at the Triple-A level (Indianapolis, 2004).

With Triple-A Indianapolis, Kyles coached International League Pitcher of the Year Ben

Hendrickson (11-3, 2.02). In 2003, he was the pitching coach with Double-A Huntsville, where he guided the pitching staff to a Southern League-best 3.17 ERA.

Prior to joining the Brewers organization at High Desert in 2001, Kyles spent six seasons with the Chicago Cubs farm system (1992-93, '97-00) and three years in the Colorado Rockies ranks (1994-96). His first coaching experience came in 1991 as the pitching coach with Bend of the Independent Western League.

Drafted in the fourth round of the 1979 June Draft by Chicago-NL, Kyles logged 11 seasons in the minor leagues before retiring after the 1989 season. He completed a career 52-56 record with a 3.86 ERA, including stops in Triple-A with Iowa (1983), Tacoma (1985-87), and Albuquerque (1988).

Kyles, his wife, Monica, and son, Marcus, reside in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

HARRY SPILMAN HITTING COACH

Harry Spilman, who served as Houston Astros hitting coach for parts of five seasons earlier this decade, enters his first season with the Brewers organization.

Spilman, 52, spent the last two seasons as the hitting coach for the Triple-A Round Rock Express in the Astros organization after parts of five Major League seasons with Houston (2000-04).

Spilman's highlights with the Astros featured an NL RBI leader in Lance Berkman (2002), and a 2001 team that led the NL in hitting (.271) and finished second in runs (847).

The Albany, Georgia native first worked as a coach in the Houston organization in 1998 and spent much of the summer of 1999 on the big-league level as the Astros hitting coach when Tom McCraw was sidelined with health complications. He previously had served seven years as a minor league manager and roving hitting instructor for the Cleveland Indians.

Spilman, who played in the Major Leagues with the Reds (1978-81), Astros (1981-85, 88-89), Tigers (1986), and Giants (1986-88) during his 11-year career, appeared in postseason play following the 1979, '81, and '87 seasons.

He was originally signed by the Cincinnati Reds as an amateur free agent on June 25, 1974 after being named All-State in baseball from 1973-74 at the Terrell Academy in Dawson, Georgia. His father, Harry Sr., was a catcher in the Dodgers minor-league system. His father-in-law, Harley Grossman, was a pitcher for the 1952 Washington Senators.

He and his wife, Kim, have two children, Kelly and Ryan. The family resides in Mount Vernon, Indiana.

JEFF PAXSON ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Paxson begins his third season as the Nashville trainer and his fifth consecutive season as the club's Triple-A trainer. Paxson has been a trainer in the Milwaukee Brewers organization since 1994.

Previously, Paxson served as the team trainer with Beloit (1994-97), Ogden (1998), Stockton (1999), Mudville (2000), Arizona Brewers (2001-02) and Indianapolis (2003). He was honored twice as his league's Trainer of the Year (Midwest League in 1997, California League in 2000).

Paxson graduated from Northeast Missouri State with a degree in exercise science. He resides in Phoenix, Arizona with his wife, Tanya.

NIGEL PRICE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Nigel Price, 29, enters his first season with the Brewers organization as the Nashville Sounds strength and conditioning coach.

NASHVILLE SOUNDS 2006 REVIEW

Nashville earned its second straight Pacific Coast League American North Division title with a 76-68 record.

The defending PCL champions picked up in 2006 where they left off in 2005, going 18-7 in the first month of the season.

C Vinny Rottino and OF Tony Gwynn were two of the most consistent players on the team. Both Rottino and Gwynn were rewarded for their solid play at the Triple-A level with call-ups to the big leagues. Rottino was hitting a team-high .313 when he was called up to the Brewers on September 1. Gwynn led the team with 134 hits and 73 runs and joined the Brewers for two stints.

RHP Dennis Sarfate led the team with 10 wins and RHP Carlos Villanueva, who started the season with Double-A Huntsville, went 7-1 for the Sounds with a team-low 2.71 ERA. Sarfate and Villanueva also made their Major League debuts in 2006.

The Sounds shut out Round Rock (Houston) twice during their PCL First Round Playoff series, but fell to the Express, four games to two.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)

The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-Present)

The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)

The "Barrel Man" logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee:
 1954-65, 75-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a Major League-record 755 home runs. Aaron was the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. He hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handlebar mustache famous had his number "34" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers won both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier in 1947 as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the majors for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER

Entering his 37th year behind the mic as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 52nd year in professional baseball in 2007.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2003, Uecker also joined former Brewers general manager, Harry Dalton, as a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He and Dalton joined Robin Yount, Paul Molitor, Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, Jim Gantner, Gorman Thomas and Cecil Cooper in receiving this special honor.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 26 seasons as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II."

His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

JIM POWELL

Jim Powell begins his 12th season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team. A highly regarded presence behind the mic, Powell joined the Brewers in 1996 and was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year. He is a three-time recipient of the Sportscaster of the Year Award in South Carolina, having earned the award in 1990 and 1991 and again in 1995.

During the winter months, Jim has served as host of "Talkin' Brewers," the hot-stove league show heard across the Brewers Radio Network since 1997.

In addition to his duties on the Brewers Radio Network, Powell has logged some time as a member of the Brewers television team, calling the action during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the minor-league level, serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights (1990-91, 1995) and the Columbia Mets (1987-89, 1993-94). Powell has also dabbled at the collegiate level, taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985 and 1986.

Powell has received national exposure through play-by-play for CBS Radio for several college football games, including the 1997 Sun Bowl pitting Iowa against Arizona State. He has also worked on Host Communications telecasts, calling the action on the gridiron in the South Carolina/Vanderbilt tilt on October 21, 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina football and basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the coaches' shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

Active contributors in the community, Jim and his wife, Emmy, served on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund for four years and remain part of the CAP Fund Advisory Board.

Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and his wife have three daughters, Allie, Sabrina and Julia. The Powells reside in Delafield, Wisconsin.

He was named director of the Marquette Basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 10th spring training at beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half-fields. The Brewers minor-league players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this exceptional complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development.

The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, AZ. Their work at Maryvale garnered several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessibility Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
